

Childcare services are deceitful place designed to drain your wallets dry

Between January 2018 and September 2022, the price of daycare and preschool rose about 22%, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Median Household incomes of $64529 spends about 29.43% of income on Childcare

47% parents in the USA spend up to $18000 a year on their childcare expenses

Massachusetts

↑ $27,125
highest average childcare cost

South Dakota

↓ $14,813
lowest average childcare cost

	Infant	Toddler	Preschool	School
US Counties with Low Population	$8,267	$7,739	$7,324	$6,487
Counties with Moderate Population	$8,668	$7,808	$7,457	$6,102
Counties with High Population	$10,051	$8,822	$8,253	$6,527
Counties with Very High Population	$13,023	$11,198	$10,387	$7,654

Average cost of childcare for one child for Center Based Care Service in 2022

The state of teachers working environment results in abuse and neglect

4.4 million referrals to Child Protective Services in 2023

77% families face difficulty in finding the right daycare

39.02% to 52.86% Parents Report taking care of children on their own is a lot harder to somewhat Harder.

Key Findings:

- About 20% of stay-at-home mothers say they would enter the workforce if they had childcare assistance.
- The cost of childcare has led to a 13% decline in the employment of mothers.
- Access to high-quality, affordable childcare is crucial for family economic security and early childhood development.
- Mothers find comfort in presence of female in the family as the load gets shared
- Having parents live with you can reduced 73% stress of mothers going through postpartum.

Prioritize giving your children the absolute best support in the world and be assured your children s are in best hands without the expense of your job, mental and physical health and significantly reduce financial crisis,

Have your parents live with you!!!

it is the only life-saving decision you can make under current situations.

Shocking results surfaced today | Read Now!!

Childcare services are deceitful place designed to drain your wallets dry

Between January 2018 and September 2022, the price of daycare and preschool rose about 22%, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Median Household incomes of $64529 spends about 29.43% of income on Childcare

47% parents in the USA spend up to $18000 a year on their childcare expenses

Massachusetts

↑ $27,125
highest average childcare cost

South Dakota

↓ $14,813
lowest average childcare cost

The state of teachers working environment results in abuse and neglect

4.4 million referrals to Child Protective Services in 2023

77% families face difficulty in finding the right daycare

39.02% to 52.86% Parents Report taking care of children on their own is a lot harder to somewhat Harder.

Key Findings:

- About 20% of stay-at-home mothers say they would enter the workforce if they had childcare assistance.
- The cost of childcare has led to a 13% decline in the employment of mothers.
- Access to high-quality, affordable childcare is crucial for family economic security and early childhood development.
- Mothers find comfort in presence of female in the family as the load gets shared
- Having parents live with you can reduced 73% stress of mothers going through postpartum.

Prioritize giving your children the absolute best support in the world and be assured your children s are in best hands without the expense of your job, mental and physical health and significantly reduce financial crisis,

Have your parents live with you!!!

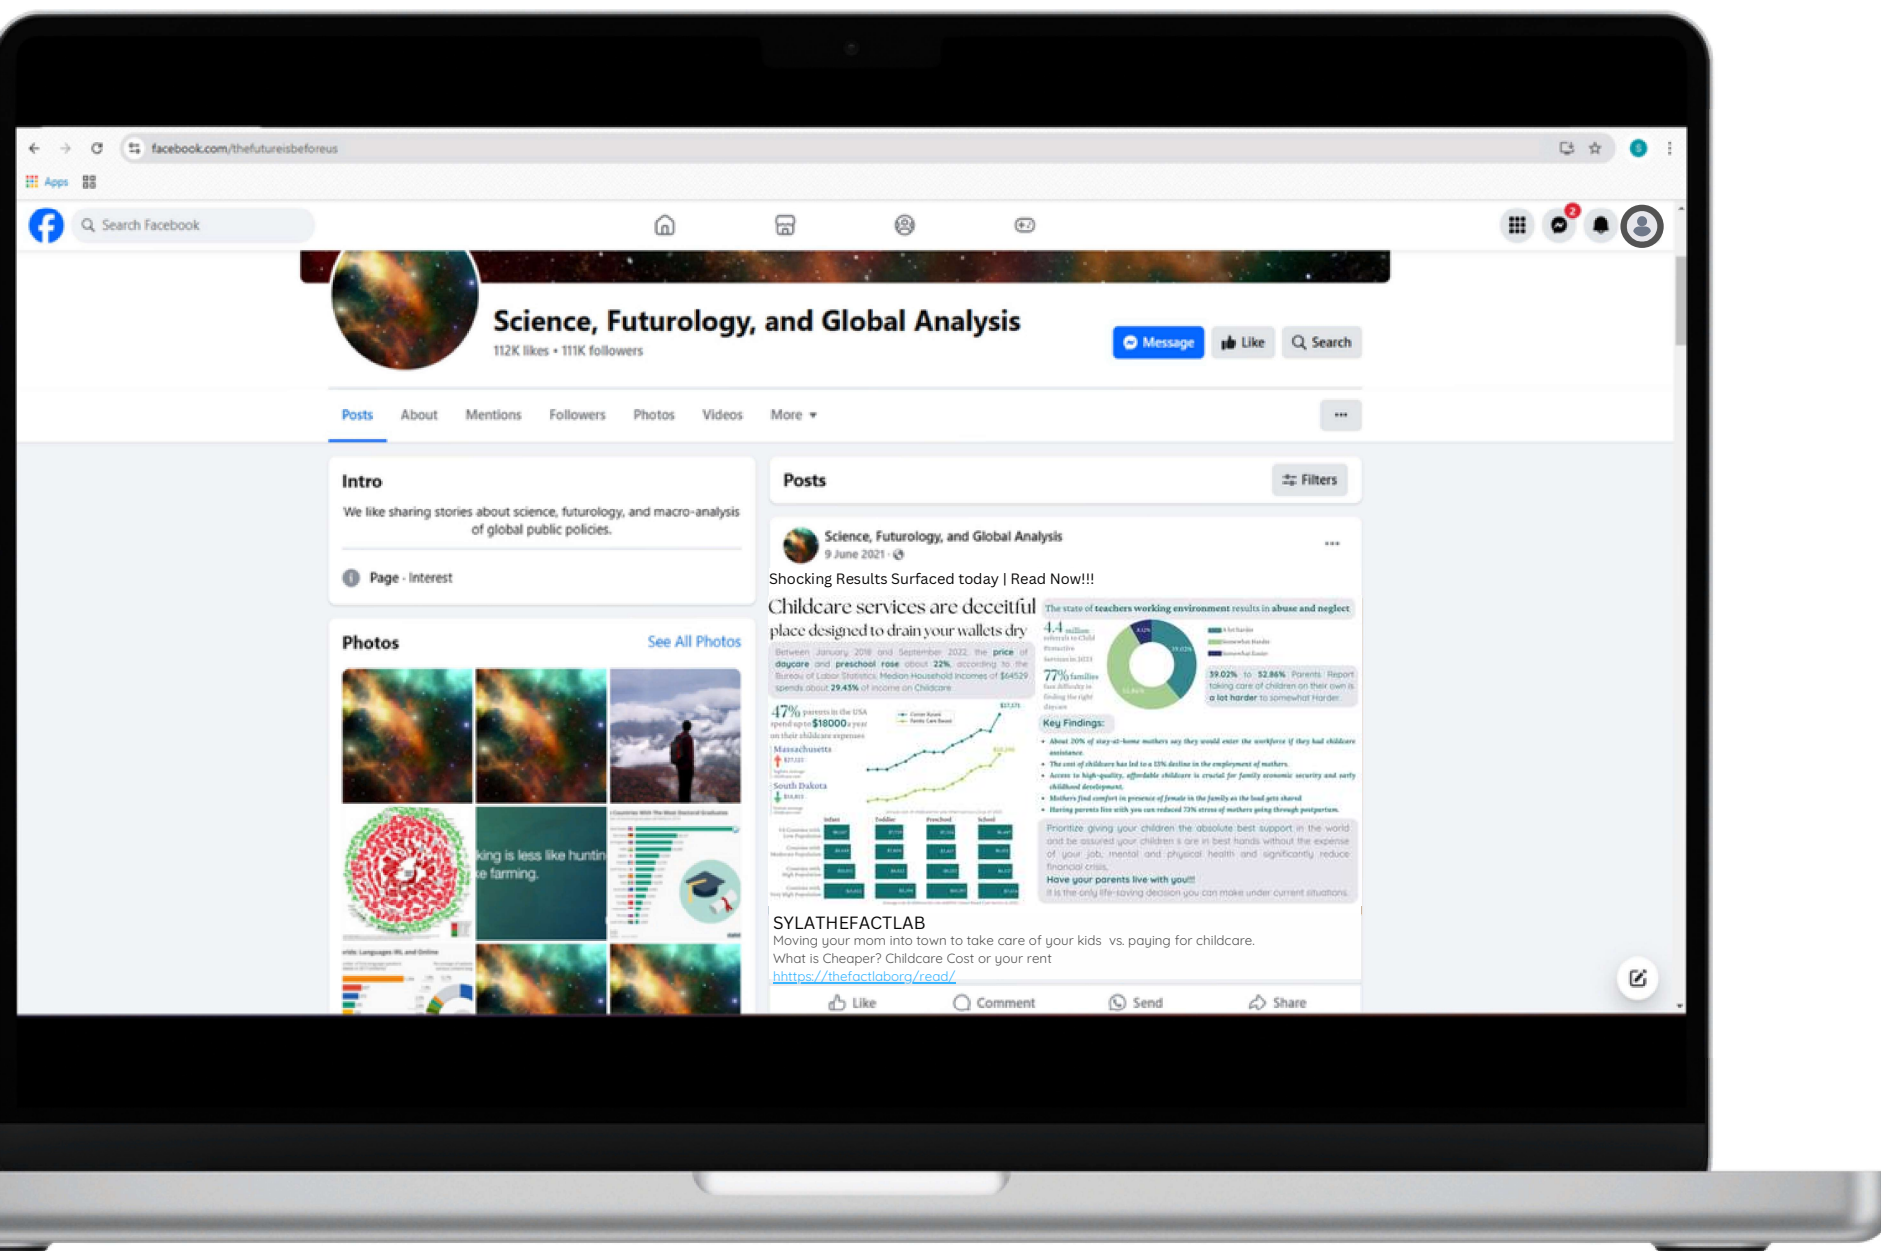

it is the only life-saving decision you can make under current situations.

SYLATHEFACTLAB

Moving your mom into town to take care of your kids vs. paying for childcare. What is Cheaper?

Childcare Cost or your rent

<https://thefactlaborg/read/>

facebook.com/thefutureisbeforeus

Apps

Search Facebook

Home Saved Profile Messenger

Grid 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

Science, Futurology, and Global Analysis

112K likes • 111K followers

Message Like Search

Posts About Mentions Followers Photos Videos More

Intro

We like sharing stories about science, futurology, and macro-analysis of global public policies.

Page · Interest

Photos

See All Photos

Posts

Filters

Science, Futurology, and Global Analysis

9 June 2021 · 🌐

Shocking Results Surfaced today | Read Now!!!

Childcare services are deceitful place designed to drain your wallets dry

Between January 2018 and September 2022, the price of daycare and preschool rose about 22%, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Median Household Income of $64,529 spends about 29.45% of income on Childcare

47% parents in the USA spend up to $18000 a year on their childcare expenses

Massachusetts $17,000

South Dakota $10,000

4.4 million parents of Child Prescriptive between in 2023

77% families not attending to finding the right daycare

39.02% to 52.86% Parents Report taking care of children on their own is a lot harder to somewhat harder.

Key Findings:

- About 20% of stay-at-home mothers say they would enter the workforce if they had childcare assistance.
- The cost of childcare has led to a 13% decline in the employment of mothers.
- Access to high-quality, affordable childcare is crucial for family economic security and early childhood development.
- Mothers find comfort in presence of friends in the family as the bond gets shared
- Having parents live with you can reduce 73% stress of mothers going through postpartum.

Prioritize giving your children the absolute best support in the world and be assured your children are in best hands without the expense of your job, mental and physical health and significantly reduce financial crisis.

Have your parents live with you!!

It is the only life-saving decision you can make under current situations.

SYLATHEFACTLAB

Moving your mom into town to take care of your kids vs. paying for childcare.

What is Cheaper? Childcare Cost or your rent

<https://thefactlaborg/read/>

Like

Comment

Send

Share